

1 in 5 Children Have an Undetected Vision Problem

this can affect growth and development

All children should have an eye examination before starting school

